DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-15 and claims 27-29 have been examined. Claims 16-26 have been cancelled.

Preliminary Amendment

2. The preliminary amendment has been acknowledged. Claims 1-15 have been amended. Claims 16-26 have been cancelled by the applicant AND SHOULD BE LISTED AS SUCH IN FUTURE ~~corresponding~~ submissions of claim set.

Priority

3. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119 (a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1-15 and claims 27-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102 (b) as being anticipated by Akiyama et al (hereinafter referred as Akiyama) (U.S. Patent Number:

Art Unit: 2132

5,805,699) Date of Patent. (September 8, 1998)

6. As per claims 1, 3, 10 and 27, Akiyama discloses a copy management system, comprising:

a storage media, which is stored with predetermined content,[figure 1 reference "1"] and which is attached with unique media identification information; [figure 1, reference 2] a user terminal device, [figure 1, reference 3] which comprises copy means [figure 1, reference 9] for copying the content stored in the storage media [figure 1, reference 1] to a first storage device,[figure 1, reference 3] (Target storage medium) and which transmits device identification information attached to the user terminal device.[figure 1, reference 4] (the device identification information/storage medium identifier) together with the unique media identification information of the storage media[column 7, lines 42-45](As explained in the abstract and also column 7, lines 42-45 both the device identification information attached to the user device/medium identifier shown on figure 1, ref. 4 and the unique media identification which is shown on figure 2, ref. 2 are transmitted /sent to the central site/server device which manages licenses for the right to copy software product); a server device which shown on figure 1, ref. 5) which transmits copy enabling information for enabling copy of content corresponding to the unique media identification information against the user terminal device corresponding to the device identification information when receiving the unique media identification information and device identification information.[Abstract and column 7, lines 39-column 8, line 7]

7. As per claims 14-15, 28 and 29, Akiyama discloses a computer readable storage media, which has been stored with a server device information processing program, the information processing program comprising:

Art Unit: 2132

A step of receiving device identification information which is attached to a device that includes a user terminal device, and media identification information uniquely attached to a storage media stored with predetermined content, the media identification information and the device identification information being sent from the user terminal device; [Column 7, lines 42-45]

a step of detecting whether the received media identification information is registered in a database registered with media identification information of storage media having the content thereof copied in a state of being associated with device identification information; [column 7, lines 46-47; figure 7, reference "S12"] and a step of transmitting copy enabling information for enabling copying of the content to a user terminal device when non-registration of the media identification information is detected.[figure 7, reference "S14" and column 7, lines 46-47; figure 7,reference "S12"] (Before the copy enabling information for enabling copying of the content is sent to a user terminal device or the target device, the legitimacy of the media identifier/software identifier is checked at the server by checking the registration as explained on column 7, lines 46-47, this meets the recitation of either checking whether the registration of the identifier or checking the non-registration of the identifier depending on the design choice. Then the processing of transmitting the copy enabling information from the central server to the terminal device depending on the outcome of verification of the registration proceeds as shown on figure 7, reference S13-S17 and explained on column 7, lines 48-column 8, line 8]

8. As per claim 2, Akiyama discloses a copy management system, as applied to claims above. Furthermore Akiyama discloses the system wherein the server device transmits the copy enabling information only once against one media identification information.[Abstract]

9. As per claims 4 and 11, Akiyama discloses a copy management system, as applied to claims above. Furthermore Akiyama discloses the system wherein the server device transmits the copy enabling information encrypted by the device identification information, and the user terminal device decrypts the encrypted copy enabling information with the device identification information.[figure 7, ref. S13-S15]
10. As per claims 5-6 and 12-13, Akiyama discloses a copy management system, as applied to claims above. Furthermore Akiyama discloses the system wherein the server device transmits an encryption key for encrypting the content to be copied; the user terminal device encrypts the content using the encryption key and copies the encrypted content to the first storage device, stores the encryption key in a predetermined storage means, and decrypts the content copied to the first storage device with the encryption key. [Figure 7]
11. As per claim 7, Akiyama discloses a copy management system, as applied to claims above. Furthermore Akiyama discloses the system wherein the server device stores as media identification information that transmission of the copy enabling information is complete in a database, in a state of being associated with device identification information attached to each user's user terminal device, and overwrites old device identification information registered in the database with modified device identification information when the device identification information of the user terminal device is modified due to repair or exchange.[Figure 1, reference "user profile database"; column 7, lines 47-48; the registration of software identifier is disclosed and overwriting and modifying of old identification such as software identifier DID should be inherently included in the database registration]
12. As per claim 8-9, Akiyama discloses a copy management system, as applied to claims above. Furthermore Akiyama discloses the system wherein the server device performs predetermined charge processing against a user who owns the user terminal device to which transmission of the copy enabling information is performed.[figure 8, see "request for billing"]
